Admission Policy

Whistling Woods International, Institute for Film, Television & Media Arts, selects applicants suited for the intensive training which it provides. Applicants must have completed equivalents of HSC or SSC (conditions apply). Need to be 15 years of age at the time of application. The applicant's talent, creativity and commitment demonstrated in the contents of the application and the potential to succeed in the programme are factors that determine acceptance. Work experience and/or education in the area of study are an asset but are not required. Acceptance is determined by the comparative quality of applicants for each programme. Whistling Woods International administers a selection process over two stages:

1. Candidates should complete the application form and submit requisite materials. The complete application form should be sent by courier or registered post to the Whistling Woods International Short Course Unit office, where it will be assessed by a Review committee comprised of members of faculty.
2. Those applicants selected by the committee for advance courses proceed to the interview round this will consist of telephonic interview you will need to discuss your motivation to join WWIL, your knowledge of film and any experience that you may have.

Successful applicants will be selected on the basis of both their application materials & their interview performance. Students will be informed of their selection by telephone and email.

We encourage you to make copies of all your application materials as applications and portfolios will not be returned to applicants.
