

LUXURIOUS SHINE FOR YOUR HAIR

In our fast-paced lives, we all need products for our hair and skin that are multi-purpose. And, if there is one product that promises to nourish your hair and uplift your spirits, it is Schwarzkopf Professional's Rose Finishing Oil, a part of Oil Ultime—an aromatherapy inspired range. Formulated with 100% natural, purified Rose oil which gently envelops the hair, helping to soothe and nourish your senses, the weightless, selfevaporating formula smoothens the hair and adds a beautiful shine without weighing it down. It can be applied to the scalp in sections and massaged as a pre-wash treatment or it can be used on damp hair to protect the hair before styling. It can also be used as a finishing oil on your styled hair as the last step to seal in the shine and lend your hair a sleek look. Available at all leading salons and e-commerce

Learn With The Times

Learning is a two-way street. Teachers ought to observe students and gauge their readiness to absorb the material before teaching the required skills, whether theoretical or experiential. And this holds, no matter what the field of education. And no one understands this better than the teachers at Whistling Woods International School of Fashion where aspiring designers are encouraged to explore their creativity through engagement within and beyond the classroom. What sets the school apart is that it nurtures innovative ideas while grooming students to tackle the evolving needs of the industry as they are exposed to a balance of theoretical, visual and theatrical input.

Bespoke Kids Jewellery

After several months of research and a lot of trial and error, Rajasi Jindal founded her eponymous jewellery label four years ago, in 2017. The bespoke jewellery line made with hallmarked gold and certified diamonds exclusively for children is hypoallergenic and lightweight. But what sets the brand apart is that her products, exclusively designed for children, have no sharp edges. The designs are cute, whimsical, and beautiful, carrying forward the age-old tradition of gifting jewellery to new mothers and babies to commemorate every momentous occasion along the way. Designed to become an intrinsic part of a child's life, Jindal's pieces exude luxury in the true sense of the word.
